It is produced by Accidental Productions and first aired on E4 on 19 November 2013. The title of the show is a reference to a phrase used in the Irish language. Synopsis A face that cries follows a 14-year-old boy named Scott as he struggles to cope with the loss of his mother. Scott is in the midst of a group of friends and must deal with having their friend's mother die; one of which is his best friend, Rob. The boy's grief is explored through flashbacks and Scott's thoughts on his mother's death. Cast Main Miles Jupp as Scott Nathaniel Parker as Rob Ed Gamble as Kevin Pollyanna McIntosh as Marion Recurring Robert Webb as Dave Lloyd McKeen as Kyle Tom Wilkinson as Rhys Episodes Production Development The series was commissioned by E4's Controller of Programming, Shane Allen, and Production Controller for E4, Sara McCabe. Filming The series was filmed in Liverpool in the summer of 2013, with E4's Head of Drama, Charlotte Moore, describing it as "the most ambitious and challenging documentary project ever made in the UK". In July 2013, Accidental Productions announced that they had secured the rights for the series. The broadcaster described the series as a "unique and emotional portrait of a teenage boy named Scott".
